Encouraging "Math Talk" in the Classroom.

Discusses ways for middle school teachers to encourage their students to discuss mathematical concepts in the classroom. Considers setting up the classroom environment to facilitate mathematics discussion, the role of the teacher, small group discussions, whole-class discussions, and student presentations. (ERIC)

Classification: C53

Keywords: reciprocal learning