Baker, Courtney; Wills, Theresa

Have you used a glog yet?

Teach. Child. Math. 19, No. 5, 324-327 (2012).

Summary: As you walk into this particular classroom, you immediately notice that students are entranced with the computer screens in front of them. You wonder what they are doing. Are they playing a game or checking their Facebook accounts? No, they are actively engaged in learning about graphing via a glog about geysers.
