Freedman, Terry

How to make ICT lessons boring.

Comput. Educ. (Stafford), No. 112, 9-11 (2006).

The points which follow stem from my experience of inspecting ICT in schools and also carrying out ICT reviews - in effect, an unofficial inspection, usually either in preparation for an inspection or as part of the school's cycle of self-review. This is an expanded version of an article that originally appeared on the ICT in Education website. (Author's abstract)
