Mass transfer: The other half of parabolic P.D.E.

N. Z. J. Math. 32, Suppl., 125-133 (2003).

In this paper we will show several motivating mass transfer problems, related with several branches of Engineering, Technology, Chemistry, and real-life problems. We will analyse them from the educational point of view and we will present several results and conclusions derived from our experiences carried up in our courses in the last four years.
