Morrill, Richard

Denmark: lessons for American principals and teachers?

Phi Delta Kappan 84, No. 6, 460-463 (2003).

Describes positive aspects of Denmark's 'class teacher' system wherein the same group of students, evenly divided by sex, remain together with the same teacher from grades 1 through 9. Includes description of testing, school and classroom discipline, and group work. Compares Danish schools with American schools. (PKP)
