ZMATH 2003f.04459
Geringer, Jim
Reflections on professional development: Toward high-quality teaching and learning.

Wyoming governor offers several recommendations for improving the quality of teachers based on reports from the National Commission on Mathematics and Science, the Education Commission of the States, and the National Commission on Teaching and America’s Future. Involves cooperation of schools of education, teachers, administrators, state governments, and business leaders. (PKP)

Classification: B53
Keywords: educational quality; partnership in education; professional development; teacher responsibility