Frost, William J.

The Internet collegiate reference collection.

Internet Ref. Serv. Q. 7, No. 1-2, 123-130 (2002).

The parameters of the Internet Collegiate Reference Collection <<http://icrc.library.bloomu.edu>> closely resemble that of a print collection. It has guidelines for addition and withdrawal of resources and an OPAC, which provides keyword searching through a relational database using open source software. Each entry is assigned a classification code, subject headings, and descriptive notes.
