Teaching level 6 maths to year six.

Summary: The author explains her approach to the challenge of working with more able pupils. She describes a sequence of activities that she developed to teach a small group of Year 6 pupils some Level 6 mathematics – and reflects on their experiences.

Classification: H22 H32 D52

Keywords: elementary algebra; approach; teaching; variables; problem posing; linear equations; simultaneous equations; creative problem solving